The WUI (which includes a tablet computer (iPad) and a WiFi router) allows full instrument control and provides touch-screen video display, keyboard and mouse, without being connected to the instrument. This allows the instrument to be located at a distance far from the operator.

Ordering Information

Model: 915-9001